	Stages of Education and Training
	Doctoral	Internship	Post-doctoral Postdoctoral	Post Licensure (Maintenance of Competence/Life-Long Learning)
Major Area Of Study	2-4 years didactics: In addition to assessment, intervention, and the scientific foundations in psychology, counseling psychology programs will include a training focus in diversity and social justice, wellness and prevention, vocational, and supervision issues. All practicum and non-practicum experiences are supervised, and the dissertation or research project should consist of a counseling psychology content area. Board certification is introduced, setting specialty certification as professional norm	At least 50% of supervised experience in specialty. Professional development on board certification in Counseling Psychology and other relevant specialties is provided.	80-100% of supervised experience in specialty, including professional development on board certification in Counseling Psychology and the early entry process.	Provision of maintenance of competency through approved professional development/CE and supervision in counseling/clinical practice and/or professional activities as a Counseling Psychologist; to also include ethics, multicultural competencies, and social justice. Attain at least the minimum number of professional development/CE hours that are required by licensing board(s); AND, that meet the minimum requirement of relevant credentialing bodies within the time period specified by relevant boards. Involvement in professional associations related to Counseling Psychology. Attainment and continuance of board certification in counseling psychology or other relevant specialty. At least 50 percent of professional development will be in specialty content areas of focus : diversity and social justice; wellness and prevention; vocational; supervision. At least 80% percent of professional activity in Counseling Psychology, including professional practice (which encompasses work as practitioner, supervisor, or consultant); science, and teaching.
Emphasis	3-4 courses and at least 2 academic terms of practicum training in specialty.	30% and <50% of supervised experience in specialty	N/A	20% required professional development/CE to be in areas of Counseling Psychology. Supervised part-time clinical practice or other related professional activities in Counseling Psychology
Experience	1-2 courses and at least 1 academic term of practicum training in specialty	>20% and <30% of supervised experience in specialty	N/A	Some approved professional development/CE and supervised part-time practice or part-time engagement in other professional activities in Counseling Psychology
Exposure	1-2 courses in specialty	Up to but not more than 20% of supervised experience in specialty	Up to but not more than 20% o supervised experience in specialty	Some professional development/CE and training in Counseling Psychology, or university course in specialty.